

A One Month Daily Devotional on the Supremacy of God's Son

Below is a suggested format for spending some personal time with the Lord Jesus each day. This format offers one possibility. You may think of even better approaches. The daily themes can help you gain “the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ” (2 Cor. 4:6 NIV).

This devotional is not tied directly to a particular part of Christ Is All! Rather, it supplements your readings there. Another note: The Old Testament readings show how Christ’s supremacy was foreshadowed. The New Testament texts explore fulfillments of His supremacy right now.

May your experience with the King over the coming month cause you to see Him with whole new eyes, to know Him more fully for all He is, to awake to the fullness of His greatness and glory, to adore Him increasingly as your King and Redeemer Lord, and to arise gladly to join Him in the acceleration of His kingdom purposes for this generation.

Suggested Daily Format

Read (one or both passages).

Listen (be silent before your King).

Awake (consider these study questions).

What is the most important insight you gain from this passage about the supreme majesty of God's Son?

Why is this dimension of His supreme majesty so important for you to know and believe?

How might this facet of Christ's kingship be seen somewhere in the world today, in the acceleration of His kingdom purposes?

Adore (praise and worship the King in prayer and song).

Arise (possible applications to your life for the rest of the day).

What Kingdom breakthroughs should you pray for in light of the insights gained today?

How might this dimension of Christ's reign make a difference in what you share with someone today, in your ministry today, or in a decision or task you face today?

How can you join God in awakening others to this dimension of His Son's majesty?

Journal (journal your thoughts, even if only one or two sentences each day).

Listen once again (be silent before your King).
